Continuing In The Faith

Baptisms of Lifran, Philomise, Esher, Francil & Mitolet

You don't have to look very hard to see just how much the culture here in the Dominican has changed since the earthquake in Haiti in 2010. Cultures constantly change; however, the mission of the church will always be the same - "Make Disciples". The Bible Baptist Church in Don Pedro keeps doing that every month. Just a few weeks ago the Church celebrated 5 baptisms publicly in the Yaque del Norte river.

Baptism is not only the first step of obedience but it is an external expression of an inner decision. After receiving Christ and being baptized, Lifran and Philomise made that inner decision even more public and were married in the Church after years of living together in Brazil. To see how God has worked in their life, has been such a blessing. We are also very grateful to announce that the church has received the needed funds to clear and fill the church property so we can begin building. God is good. Many times blessings accompany trials and Pastor Dial and Martha have been relying on the Lord in regards to Martha's health as well as a robbery suffered the last part of June. Please pray for the Church and Martha's health.

Prayer Tweets

Pastor Dial's wife, Martha, has been battling a stomach ulcer. Please join us in prayer for her healing according to God's will.

Church in Don Pedro suffered a robbery last night. Stole 4, 6-volt house batteries, a Mac Laptop and iPod. PTL no one was hurt!
