They Tied the Knot

Our youngest son Jordan, married the love of his life this month. Laura was beautiful and elegant. Together, they were an amazingly attractive couple. However, behind our personal affection for them as parents, is our deep respect. Each of them are not only great ambassadors for Christ but both have made great sacrifices to do His will in learning and serving Him over the last few years. They have worked hard to do what is right when the world is moving in the opposite direction. We are very grateful for them honoring and obeying their parents, which speaks a lot about their character and commitment to the Lord. We are very blessed, as it is obvious that Laura's whole family loves the Lord. Dr. Pepper and I both prayed for them, and it was fun catching up with many friends and family members. Please pray that God would lead them to a wonderful Church to do their internship and specifically guide them to the place God would have them start a Church on the mission field.

Yay! They Are Finally Free!

We are thrilled to announce the graduation of Heidi with a Master's in Theological Studies and Laura and Jordan with their Master's of Divinity. Very grateful that they have been rooted, built up and established in the faith at Southwestern. You can tell they know that no education, no accomplishment, no person or human leader is greater than daily walking with Jesus
