Prayer is the Key that Unlocks the Door

5 different mission conferences in 5 cities in Cuba in Nov.

Imagine living in such a time as this in Cuba? Fidel Castro has passed from this life and as his tomb is filled this week, we only need to open our Bible's to discover, in contrast, that our Savior's tomb is empty. This in itself should encourage us to tell as many as possible about Christ's life, death and resurrection. While many outside of Cuba have praised the Revolution, just about any objective visitor to the island would contradict the majority of what is being reported. As Christians, we should not be focused on that which is temporary; instead, we should be focused on the eternal light of Jesus Christ. Cuba, like many other Latin American countries, is in darkness. Santeria has grown in ever province, yet a remnant continues to shine there lights in the middle of the storm. This month, in our missions conference, we focused our efforts on the work being done in Cuba. We would like for you to join us in prayer for: Pastor Nestor and his church in La Lisa, Pastor Michel and his church in Campo Florido, Pastor Alberto and his church in Guanabacoa, as well as missions the fellowship has established in Puerta de Golpe, La Habana Vieja and Jaimanita in Villa Clara. 🙏

Prayer and Praise Tweets

Dennis (cuts the grass at church in Don Pedro) was hit by a motorcycle (man ran away) during a heavy rain. He is in Jose Cabral Hosp.

Don Pedro increased there faith promise enough to support the Fellowship in Cuba $100 a month Pastor Dial plans to visit Cuba soon.

Now making plans for furlough starting July 2017 🙏
